Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with ; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held ; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all their purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms ; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE,
Fairfax Court-House, Va.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber living in King George's county Va. on Monday the 22nd March, a yellow man named JAMES, about 22 years of age, his fore-teeth wide apart, and cannot speak very quick—had on Virginia cloth clothes and carried off a shaggy great coat, he has a father named Peter Hall, who lives with the widow Morgan, at Oak Hill, Fauquier Co. and his grandfather, old Frederick Hall, is supposed to be living at Mr. Terrett's near Alexandria, and it is likely he may be lurking about there. I will give the above reward for apprehending and securing said fellow so that I get him again, and reasonable charges if brought home.

TO the jail for Alexandria county, as a runaway, on 21st inst. a negro man, who calls himself HENRY WILLIAMSON, alias JACOB ROBINSON. The said negro is about 25 years of age, and about 5 feet six inches high, of a yellow complexion; he had on a blue cotton jacket, and linen trowsers. When committed, he said he was the property of Mr. Elliot, of Baltimore, but now says he is the property of a Mr. Tyson, of the same place, and that he will be entitled to his freedom in a short time.

The owner is requested to come forward and prove property, pay charges and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs.

ANDW ROUNSAVELL.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly : had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia ; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. 100 Dollars Reward.

IS known to have been kidnapped from a field near Germantown, between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, on the 30th ult. whilst at work alone, a Free Black Man, named HENRY HUDSON, aged between 21 and 22 years, of the height of five feet five inches, very black complexion and dark eyes, has a scar under his left arm, between the wrist and elbow, occasioned by the cut of an axe.

He is by occupation a farmer, a native of Kent county, in the state of Delaware, had on a blue cloth roundabout jacket, old black silk vest, corded velvet pantaloons, and a wool hat.

He is a very civil, inoffensive man, with rather a down look. There is reason to suppose that he was decoyed into a carriage, and conveyed southward.

Any information respecting him will be thankfully received. Keepers of turnpike gates, toll bridges, and taverns, are particularly requested to give such information as may be in their power.

The above reward will be cheerfully paid on conviction of the perpetrators of this flagrant outrage upon the rights of a freeborn citizen of the United States.

Land Warrants,

FOR sertices in the revolutionary war, in the Virginia line on continental establishment.

Owners of, and those entitled (being all who served three years and upwards,) to warrants of the above description, are informed that, under the authority of a law of the United States, locations will, on the 4th day of July next, be permitted to be made on some valuable lands on the Scioto river, and the head waters of the Great Miami river—And as it will be the last opportunity to acquire good land, owners of warrants will do well not to neglect it.

Any warrants forwarded to the subscriber, will be located on such land as he may suppose most likely to please his employers. CADWALLADER WALLACE.
Chillicothe, (Ohio) April 15 19t*

For Sale or Lease,

THE following tracts of land in Charles county, Maryland : one lying on the Potomac, at the mouth of Pomonkey creek, containing three hundred and forty acres, about 16 miles from Alexandria, the larger portion level land, of a stiff soil, well adapted to the cultivation of corn, wheat and tobacco, and equal in fertility to any in the neighborhood. On this farm is one of the most elegant sites for building of all those fine heights which border the Potomac, commanding the most extensive view of the adjacent country, both in Virginia and Maryland, for more than twenty miles up and down the river : located in a genteel neighborhood, it would make an agreeable residence, and from its proximity to market, with the advantage of the best navigation, an extremely profitable farm.—The tenant's houses would accommodate the negroes for its cultivation.

A Tract, about one mile back from the former, containing 334 acres, a large portion in wood, white and red oak, and some chesnut ; the remainder a tenement in tolerable repair, the whole a high stiff soil, similar to the one above mentioned.

A Tract, lying at the mouth of Mattawoman Creek, about 25 miles from Alexandria, the whole first rate flat river land, now completely enclosed.—On this tract is a noted fishery, called Rum Point, at which there has been cleared upwards of two thousand dollars per annum, and where independent of the fish sold on the shore, there might be put up from one to two thousand barrels every season ; besides the profits of the fishery, the advantage of manuring the farm with the offal of the shore, the whole, with a small portion of industry, might be made to produce ten barrels of corn per acre. On the shore, are a dwelling house, houses for boiling salt, and curing any quantity of fish, and for the accommodation of hands.

A Tract, lying about 1½ miles from the last mentioned, containing 236 acres, more than 200 of which are in wood, and would cut from 25 to 30 cords per acre, within one mile of the river, where wood has rarely sold for less than five dollars per cord. It will be divided into 50 or 25 acre lots, to suit purchasers.—If preferred, the wood will be sold standing, for so much per acre.

If not disposed of, previous to the first day of Sept. next, the above mentioned arable lands, will be leased out, upon advantageous terms, for five or seven years, at the option of the lessees.

Application to be made to the subscriber, residing near the head of Mattawoman Creek, Charles county, Maryland.

THE SPANISH TREATY.

Our readers will have seen, by the time they read this, that, by the latest and most authentic accounts, the Treaty with Spain had not been ratified on the 22d of June.

We are not among those who attach great importance to this negative information. Still less do we believe, that Spain intends or desires to provoke a rupture with this country. There is no motive which could influence her to do so. That she has seen with mortification, privateers swarming from our ports and preying on her defenceless commerce, there can be little doubt; but she has also seen that the government of the U. States, sensible of the enormity of such unlicensed robbery, has used its exertions to put a stop to it, and is therefore guiltless of having encouraged such practices. She has seen, too, that the people of this country, had the government displayed the same inclination, have been well enough disposed to have wrested the Floridas from Spain, by a weapon very different from negociation, and to have taken ample indemnity in Mexico, as well as Florida, for Spanish spoliations on our commerce. But the alternative of war with Spain has been cautiously and sedulously avoided; & a treaty has been framed, in conformity to her minister's instructions, quite as favorable to Spain as she could have expected. That treaty, under such circumstances, it is scarcely possible she will not ratify.

If, after this view of the subject, people will anticipate an ultimate refusal to ratify the treaty, let the fact of the promotion of Don Luis de Onis speak for itself. It is not to be supposed that the king of Spain would elevate, to the highest office and honors in his gift, a man who had just returned from a foreign mission, which had resulted in a treaty so odious, that the sovereign intended to reject it.

That a few courtiers about the person of the king, interested in large grants of land in Florida, of a date too late to be recognized by the treaty, will exert themselves to defeat its ratification, is quite probable. We trust they will utterly fail: we hope it, as we deprecate war, which, we believe, would sooner or later, be the inevitable consequence of a breach of faith in this instance on the part of Spain.

The time limited by the treaty, within which, on ratification, it shall peremptorily bind both parties, is currently reported to be six months; which term will expire about the 24th of this month. If not ratified before that day, the government of the United States, on its part, ceases to be bound by it.

It is proper to state, that the private letters received in this city from Madrid give no reason to suppose that the treaty will not be duly ratified.

New-Bedford, July 30.

FROM TANGIER.

A gentleman in this town has received a letter from Mr. Simpson, American Consul at Tangier, dated June 12th, stating that LEMUEL GIFFORD, late of the brig Mary, of this port, had been ransomed from the Arabs, and arrived at Mogadore on the 25th May, in perfect health; and would take passage in the first vessel from thence for the United States, or Europe.

Richmond, August 3.

CREW OF THE IRRESISTABLE.

On Friday last, the special term of the Federal Court was closed.—On that day the following proceedings took place.—Present Chief Justice Marshall and Judge Tucker.

Thomas Smith, late of Norfolk, in Va. who stands indicted of piracy, was this day again led to the bar in custody of the marshal, and upon consideration of the special verdict found by the jury in his case on Wednesday last, and of the arguments of counsel, the following question occurred as material in the cause:—"Does the offence charged in this indictment and found by the jury to have been committed by the prisoner, amount to the crime of piracy as defined by the law of nations, so as to be punishable under the act of congress entitled; "An act to protect the Commerce of the United States, and punish the crime of piracy?"

On this question the judges were divided in opinion, and do therefore direct it to be adjourned to the supreme court of the United States for decision—And it is adjourned accordingly.

All the other prisoners (under the same indictment) were led to the bar, but the court not being advised of its judgment to be given on the matters of law arising from the special verdict found against them, takes time to consider thereof until the next term, and thereupon they are remanded to the custody of the marshal.

All the untried cases (under the two other indictments) were postponed until the next court.

Thomas Watson was discharged from further prosecution, and then recognized to appear here on the first day of the next term . . . . And then the court adjourned.

The crew of the Irresistable are confined in a house of Mr. W. Mitchell's on the river; and on Friday night three of them contrived to escape from the window, when they were discovered by the centinel.—Two of them pushed immediately for the river, into which they plunged—one of them swam towards Rocketts and escaped—the other was taken at the dock. Their companion was also apprehended.

New-York, August 2.

ATTEMPT TO DEFRAUD.

A short time since insurance was effected at the Washington Insurance Office in this city, on the store and goods belonging to Pinkney & Battin, of Mamakating, Sullivan county, in this state. A short time after the store was discovered to be on fire, but by the great vigilance of the inhabitants of the place, the flames were extinguished before the building was consumed. On opening the trunks supposed to contain the dry goods insured, it was found they were filled with little or nothing but combustible articles. Pinkney was immediately arrested, and has confessed it was intended to defraud the office, and on his affidavit, his partner and accomplice, Battin, was arrested by our police magistrates, on Saturday, and both were committed for trial.

Middletown, (Conn.) July 29.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.

On Tuesday last, as Mr. James Turner and his wife, of this town, were riding in a carriage, the horse took fright and run. Mr. Turner jumped out and held on by the reins, but the carriage, in going over a rock upset, threw Mrs. Turner out, and killed her instantly—her scull was broke, and otherwise much bruised—she was only 19 years of age.

Gallipolis, (Ohio.) June 25.

A NEW METHOD OF GETTING A WIFE.

A few days since a man by the name of ——— SANS, having made some advances to a young lady in the county of Meigs, which did not meet with the approbation of her father, the old gentleman forbid him his house. But my gentleman, intent upon his game, was not to be defeated in this way. He, with a few of his associates, went to a magistrate, procured a state's warrant for the old gentleman, had him arrested in the dead of night, and put under keepers; then, by virtue of a summons, took the daughter, pretendedly as a witness against her father: but instead of taking her to the magistrate's where the father was confined, they took her to a neighboring house, where the same magistrate who had issued the warrant for the father, and summons for the daughter, soon made his appearance, and where, through much persuasion, the girl was joined in wedlock, after which the father was suffered to depart in peace to his own house.

What a blessing is a free government!!

QUARANTINE AT BERMUDA.

The governor of Bermuda, in his speech to the Legislative Assembly of that Island, recommends some additional precautionary measures to guard that province from the introduction of malignant diseases from abroad. The following is the paragraph of his address, calling the attention of the Legislature to the subject:

'Disease having unhappily found its way among us last summer, in which many useful and promising lives fell victims to its virulence, I would recommend to your conderation, how far precautionary measures, in addition to those now existing, may be worthy of Legislative enactments, to prevent more effectually a calamity, which in apprehension as well as reality, nothing should be left undone to avert; and for this end to subject vessels arriving within this government from ports often visited with disease, to quarantine laws, operating within the seasons most dreaded for spreading pestilence, notwithstanding at the moment of the arrival of such vessels, no disease shall be found prevailing among the crews.'

From the Alabama Republican.

THE CONSTITUTION.

On Tuesday 13th inst. Mr. Clay, chairman of the committee appointed on Wednesday last, to draft a Constitution for the State of Alabama, reported, that the committee had agreed upon the plan of a constitution, which he now submitted to the convention.—We have had no opportunity of examining the plan reported by the committee, so as to give it in detail to our readers, but we have such a recollection of its leading features as to furnish them with a tolerable idea of the views of the committee.

The report provides for the election of a governor, by the people who shall hold his office for the term of two years; he shall be possessed of a freehold estate to the value of 3000 dollars, and after the second election for governor, no person shall be eligible unless he shall have resided in the state at least four years; the governor is to have a negative on all bills passed by the legislature, which shall nevertheless become laws, provided two thirds of both houses concur.

The Legislature is divided into two branches, viz. a house of representatives and senate—the former is to be chosen by the people annually, observing the present ratio of representation, except that the counties of Marengo and Dallas are to send each two members, instead of one, and Monroe five. This branch of the legislature is never to exceed 100 members, who are to be apportioned among the several counties, according to the population of the same, respectively, as ascertained by a census to be taken in the years 1820, 1822, and 1825, and every 5 years thereafter.

The senate is to be composed of fifteen members, and is never to exceed one-third of the whole number of the house of representatives.—The state is to be divided into fourteen senatorial districts, of which Madison county is to form one, and to send two senators, Limestone one, &c. This apportionment is subject to alteration as the population varies; senators are to be elected for three years.

The judiciary is to consist of a superior court, composed of judges and such inferior courts as the legislature shall deem expedient to establish in the respective counties.

The judges of the superior court are to perform the duties of district judges, to have chancery jurisdiction, and to form the supreme court of appeals, till 1825, when the legislature shall have power to establish a separate chancery court, and a supreme court of appeals.

The judges are to be appointed by a joint vote (viva voce) of the senate and legislature, and (excepting those first appointed, whose term shall expire in the year 1825,) they are to hold their office during good behaviour, limiting the term of service to the 70th year of their age—they are made liable to removal by impeachment, and for other reasonable cause, on the petition of two-thirds of both branches of the legislature, which reasonable cause shall be spread upon the journals of both houses, and the accused shall have an opportunity of defending himself on the accusation alleged against him, at the bar of each house.

Sheriffs are to be elected by the people, to hold their office three years, and afterwards to be ineligible, either as principal or deputy.

Clerks to be appointed by the courts.

Magistrates and other officers, to be appointed by the legislature.

The seat of government is to remain at Huntsville, till after the session of the first legislature, and then is to be at Cahaba till the session after the census of 1825, when the legislature shall fix it permanently.

Banks.—The proposed plan contemplates the establishment of a State Bank, and branches, by the legislature, restricting them however to the establishment of but one branch, at any one session.

No bank shall be established except the legislature subscribe two-fifths of the stock, and appoint a number of directors equal to the interest of the state in the bank. And no bank is to go into operation until the payment in gold or silver of the whole amount of the stock subscribed for, which cannot be less than 100,000 dollars. Every stockholder is to be liable in his individual capacity for the debts of the bank, to the amount of his stock.

New-York, August 3.

By the ship Morning Star, and brig Hannah and Rebecca, from New-Orleans, we learn, that several vessels had been robbed in the Mississippi river, near the S. W. Pass, by an open boat, manned by ten or twelve desperadoes. Amongst the vessels robbed were the ship Governor Griswold, brigs Argo, Calypso, Clio, and the Dutch galliot Fortuna. The master of the latter vessel received several severe wounds in the arms and body, while defending himself and property. Some of the leaders of the band were recognized by captain Mix, of the ship Governor Griswold. This boat also made an attempt upon the Morning Star at two o'clock on the morning of the 14th ult. but finding the ship prepared for their reception, thought fit to make off.

Captain Center, of the Fair American, states, in addition to the above, that on the 9th ult. an armed boat with ten men appeared on the Southwest Pass, and robbed the following vessels:—Brig Argo, Meader, of 65 dollars, a trunk of valuable clothing, &c.; brig Cobosse-Cont, of provisions and clothes; two schrs. of provisions; a Dutch galliot of some money & stores, and stabbed the captain in several places; the brig Calypso, for Havana, of 50 dollars, a watch, &c.; the ship Governor Griswold, of a watch, clothes, &c.—They were six days engaged in these depredations, secreting their plunder at night. The custom-house officer sent to the commander of Fort Plaquamine, 20 miles distant, for aid. A boat with a lieutenant and six men was sent down; but they went into garrison in the Balize, and the pirates remained in quiet possession of the pass! [Gazette.

LETTERS

FROM AN AMERICAN TRAVELLER, NOW ON A TOUR TO MISSOURI, &c.

No. 1.

Pittsburgh, July 5, 1819.

Dear Sir—It will always afford me great pleasure to communicate to you every thing interesting; and I shall be happy if I can render you a portion of the gratification and delight myself and son have enjoyed in our passage up the Lakes, in the steam-boat Walk-in-the-water.

You know it is only a few years since business frequently called me to the western part of our state, (New-York, 1814)—yet, in this short period, much has been done to astonish and delight us. Most of the villages and towns west of Utica, have greatly improved, and the fields and farms near the public roads, have been almost entirely cleared of old stumps. The traveller's eye is fatigued with riding through a new country, when, instead of orchards and cornfields, he sees nothing but stumps and log houses. As the orchards rise, the stumps are banished, and a new house is erected, while the old cabin is left to moulder and decay. I often compare those old log houses to an old friend; altho' not so fair, without good hospitality, and kind, generous hearts within. In life, so in travelling—we turn our hearts from the plain old fashioned friend, and pass on to the gaudy trappings of a new comer. I look with a sigh at the desertion and the loss of a log house, where once a smiling hostess and healthy children welcomed me to a frugal meal of pork & fried potatoes, pure water, and a clean bed.

The village of Canandaigua certainly stands first in opulence, and perhaps is not surpassed in beauty by any inland town in the U. States; but when we pass to the village of Rochester, and from thence on the ridge road to the Niagara streight, we can scarcely give credit to our senses; as much as has been said about the sudden growth of towns west of the Alleghany, yet nothing I have heard of or seen in the valley of the Mississippi, can boast of so rapid growth as the village of Rochester—favored by nature in its location and beauty, and grandeur of scenery, combined with all the advantages of trade. Although the falls of Niagara will always be the poet's theme, for sublimity and majesty, yet there is a simplicity and grandeur in the cataracts of Genessee, that fix the attention and gives a charm that passes the limits of description. If I may be allowed the comparison, the one exhibits the muscular strength of Hercules and the majesty of angry Jupiter, while the other may boast of all the grace, symmetry, and dignity of Apollo.

The bridge of one expansive arch, at the lower falls, though made of rude materials, seems the work of some mighty master. I shall venture to say, that, when the neighboring wood is cut open to lake Ontario, this town will be the resort of every tourist—and Rochester, washed by the waves of the lake on the north, flanked on the east and the west by two of the largest and most fertile counties of the state, through which nature has interlocked a road, free as air, and level as water, will stand unrivalled in the west. All the towns on the Niagara streight have been rebuilt, and are much larger than they were before the war.

The falls of Niagara can now be viewed with great advantage from Goat Island; and, immediately below the falls, a boat will convey you with safety over the rolling billows, while the dark mist that hangs over your head, is illumined by the beautiful arch of Iris. I can assure you, we spent three days in passing from one side to the other, and the new views of the falls continually delighted and astonished us.

Yours truly, ****** ********

EVENTS AND ANTICIPATIONS.

The difficulty of obtaining discounts has had no effect upon the musquetoes—they continue as lively and active as in the most prosperous times.

Such is the scarcity of money the watermelons will hardly bring a dollar a piece in market—indeed so great is the distress over the river, that it is not supposed above three hundred dollars will be bet on the next Gander-Pulling.

Twenty-four persons, on Saturday last, took razors in their hands and—shaved themselves with great deliberation;—several others, however, having money to pay, got shaved without losing their beards.

Notwithstanding the dulness of the times, any person having money to lend, may be furnished with customers on the shortest notice.

From the absence of specie it is thought that some of the Western Banks will have to pay their notes in Bacon, or suspend their operations.

Should Bacon be substituted for Specie as a circulating medium, it is thought that Irish Potatoes might be advantageously made use of for small change.

The inflexibility of steady habits is no confined to New-England—it is strikingly exemplified in the Augusta market, where articles maintain their former prices, in defiance of the change of times and the scarcity of cash. [Georgia Advertiser.

New-York, August 2.

FROM EUROPE.

The regular trading ship Ann, capt. Crocker, arrived on Saturday, from Liverpool. By this vessel we have received our files of European popers from our correspondents. To capt. Crocker we are also indebted for politely furnishing us with a regular file of London and Liverpool papers.

The debates in the British Parliament on the subject of their finances, taxes, &c. occupy the principal part of the London papers.

The London Courier of June 9 says "We are happy to observe that confidence has in a great measure revived in the city. Good bills are readily done at 4½ per cent. Silver and gold are both low and in little demand."

An interesting and animated debate on the Finances of the English nation took place in the House of Commons on the 7th June. Lord Castlereagh answered Mr. Tierney.

"There would be a period (said lord Castlereagh) when Parliament must look at the interests of all parties, and perhaps put a stop to the accumulation of the Sinking Fund for the national benefit and security. His lordship therefore protested against the misrepresentations which the right hon. gentleman [Mr Tierney] had attempted, and from which his own better knowledge ought to have repelled him. (Hear.) The first question which the country ought to look at in a fearless and a manly way, was, whether it ought to be satisfied with its financial situation in time of peace; or whether some effort ought not to be made to enable it to meet the burthens of a new war should such a calamity unfortunately visit it? This was a subject of immense magnitude—a subject independent of all parties, and of all party interests; and "I conjure you (said his lordship, with great warmth) not to suffer any feeling of respect for the government, if such exist, to divert you from the strict discharge of your duty. If you do not in your conscience believe that the existing government can be trusted—*if you think them incompetent in talent, or in prudence, or in honesty, you owe it to your own character to the best interests of the state, to the great nation whose representatives you are, not to hesitate a moment in carrying that opinion to the foot of the throne, and to call for the dismissal of those individuals you hold unworthy of their stations. (Loud cheers.) I should hold that the government was indeed degraded; that it was indeed unworthy of the confidence of the prince who has so trusted it, of the people who have so long relied, upon it, if, after the expression of such an opinion, it were base enough for a moment to continue in office; if the house refused ministers its support, if it denied them the means of conducting the affairs of the kingdom, they ought instantly to retire to make way for others, in whose favor the wishes and hopes of the country were united. (Hear.) I conjure you, gentlemen, not to trifle or tamper with this mighty question; let them put government wholly out of their view, and let them decide upon the broad and substantial merits, not upon any consideration of who may or who may not be in power; the question is not between ministers and their antagonists, it is between parliament and the country—between the representatives and their constituents; and it would be disgraceful to the house if at such a time as this it could at all contemplate party interests and political motives. I say, and I say it with all humility, that as servants of the crown we should be unworthy of our stations, if while parliament withheld the means, we still persisted in retaining the reins of government: we claim to be armed with weapons to meet the difficulties and dangers of the state, and if we are not to be entrusted with them, we are willing to resign to more favored, perhaps more able, but not more zealous champions."

[The above passages were delivered (says the Courier) with the utmost animation, and were received with shouts of approbation.]

Died,

On Monday last, in Leesburg, Mrs. MARTHA MINES, consort of the Rev. John Mines, of said town.

Camp Meeting.

There will be a camp meeting held on the 11th of AUGUST next, in the county of St. Mary's, Maryland, on Snow Hill Manor, on the south side of St. Mary's river, about five miles from its mouth, on the lands of Mr. Wm. Bennett. The river is navigable for vessels of any description—and the harbor excellent.

100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

Stone Ware.

JOHN SWANN, manufacturer of stone ware, in the town of Alexandria, respectfully informs his customers, that he has been enabled lately to make a great improvement in his ware, although it has been at considerable expense and labor, and he looks to a generous public for a support. He also would inform them, that he has on hand, at this time, a large assortment of ware, equal to any made in the United States. The merchants in the adjoining counties in Virginia will find it to their advantage in buying stone ware from him, as he is determined none shall sell lower than he does, his prices being at this time from 20 to 30 per cent. lower than they are in Baltimore; and he will warrant his ware to be of a good quality, which has been acknowledged by the very best judges of that article.

Merchants from the country leaving or sending their orders to Messrs. J. & J. Douglas; B. Hampson & Co.; or J. W. Massey; he will have them promptly filled up, and all orders thankfully received by

100 Dollars Reward.

RUNAWAY from the subscriber, on Saturday last, a negro man named

LEWEY.

This negro is about 20 years of age, very likely, of a very black complexion, about five feet ten inches high, and very spare. His clothes are not recollected.—It is supposed that he took with him a fine cambric shirt, and a blue roundabout. It is probable that he will endeavor to make his way to Pennsylvania, and that he is in company with two others.

I will give Fifty Dollars for him, if taken in this county—One Hundred if taken out of it, and secured so that I get him again.

Lands for Sale.

BY VIRTUE of a power of attorney from William S. Courts to the subscriber, will be sold at public sale,

On WEDNESDAY, the 15th AUGUST, in Port To'acco, that valuable tract of land whereon John H. Barnes at present resides called lying and being in Charles county Maryland, containing between three and four hundred acres. This land is handsomely situated, lying immediately on Matawoman Creek, at least one third of which is in wood, with a sufficient quantity of marsh land for grazing—that part of the land which is in cultivation is well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat and tobacco, and with proper care would be equal, if not superior to any land in that neighborhood.

ALSO,

At the same time and place, will be offered for sale the plantation at present in the occupancy of Francis & Sam'l Wheeler, lying about one mile from the above place, containing about four hundred acres. As it is presumed that persons wishing to purchase will first view the premises, it is thought unnecessary to give a more particular description thereof. The terms of sale will be as follows: viz possession given on the first day of January next, at which time one third of the purchase money will be required, the remaining two thirds at one and two years the purchaser giving bond with approved security with interest.—Upon the payment of the whole purchase money, a sufficient deed will be executed to the purchaser.

Five Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY, on the morning of Wednesday, the 26th May, from the subscriber, in the city of Baltimore, an apprentice to the cordwaining business, by the name of WILLIAM DURANT, about (as he says) between 19 or 20 years of age; 5 feet 4 or 6 inches high; slender made; light hair; dark eyes, and appears somewhat cross-eyed; fair complexion; peaked nose; and marked with India ink about the arm with some fictitious letters and an image resembling part human and part fish; he is very talkative, and forward in speaking; had on and took with him, a corded roundabout and trowsers, fur hat, and new shoes. He is an Englishman by birth, and effected his escape by getting off from the British, whilst lying somewhere about Leonard town and St. Mary's county, and afterwards lived with a Mr. Rudd, a painter, in Alexandria; he was seen in Alexandria.

Whoever takes up the above runaway, and returns him to the subscriber, or gives information so that he may get him again, shall receive the above reward. I forewarn any person from harboring the said apprentice. JOHN WEVER, Lombard-street, Baltimore.

N. B. The above named apprentice, it seems, at the time of his making his escape from the British, changed his name, and passed for a while by the name of Wm. Wise, as he has said himself.

Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.

Please to apply at my Exchange Banking House, Bridge-street, Georgetown.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c, and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25
